

Maintenance and Operation Override

The 15% Maintenance and Operation budget override would continue funding for programs currently serving District students. This override supports the District's efforts to help maintain present levels of service.

Retention and recruitment of highly qualified teachers and staff

Academic Interventions

Athletic Programs

Management of classroom size

Performing /Visual Arts Program

Extracurricular Activities

Increase enrollment in courses such as AP, Honors, Dual Enrollment with an emphasis on academic rigor

Prepare all students for college and career success

The estimated secondary property tax rate needed to fund the full override is $0.89 per $100 of net assessed valuation used for secondary tax purposes. The estimated secondary tax rate for the proposed override is approximately equal to the existing secondary tax rate for the current override, as this is an override continuation and will maintain programs that have been in place with prior year's override approvals.
